IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRCIT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRCICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

COREY D. ROSENDARY,
Petitioner,

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Respondent,

Criminal No 03-29
CIVIL NO. 06-280 E
Respondent,

§ 2255 MOTION TO CORRECT ILLEGAL SENTENCE

COMES NOW Petitioner Corey Rosendary pro-se hereby file his petition to correct his illegal sentence impose upon him by this court.

JUSISDICTION

This court has juriddiction pursuant Anti- Terrorists Act (1996)
A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to a motion under this section § 2255. That the sentence was impose in valuation of the Constitution or laws of the United States, or that court was without jurisdiction to impose such sentence, or that the sentence was in excess of the maximum authorized by law,or is otherwise sugject to collateral attack, may move the court which imposed the sentence to vacate, set aside or correct the sentence.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On or about January 09, 2003, defedant was indicted by West District of Pennsylvania Grand Jury that the defendant knowingly and intentionally and unlawful possess with the intent to distribute five (5) grams or more of a mixture and substance containing a dectable amount of cocaine base commonly know as crack, In violation of Title 21, WSC, Section 841 (a)(1) and 841(b)(B)(iii)

Exhibit A (1)

Case 1:03-cr-0002 3JM Document 47-1 Filed 11/2. .006 Page 2 of 4

On April 28, defendant entered a plea of guilty through amplea agreement page (3) pargrah (3) prior to sentencing the United States Attorney will, orally ot in writing mowe that pursuant to Section 3E1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines, the court reduce the offense level by three levels for acceptance of responsibilty, on the grounds that the offense level prior to application of Section 3E1.1 is 16 or greater.

On August 10, 2004 defendant was sentence to a term of 210 months and four years supervised release. On August 18, 2004 a timely appeal was filed. Defendant was denied his direct appeal in March 2006.

COMPLAINT

Defendant alleges that his Fifth and Sixth Constitution Amendments were serious violated by his counsel due process and effective assistant of counsel.

- 1. Counsel violated defendant due process by not objecting to the PSR in any drug case the amount of drugs is the base offense Rosendary only admitt to detectable amount, in U.S. v Ameline 376 F.3d 976(9th Cir. 2004)Ameline only admitted to a dectecable amount of methanphetamine. On the basis of this admission alone; the maximum sentence under the guidelines that district judge could have imposed without further findings would have been 16 months, given the base offense level 12. U.S.S.G. a sentence of 210 months base offense level of 33.
- 2. Counsel was ineffective for his failure for not objecting at senntencing when the court ask counsel on page 5 line 11-15.

The court, Mr. Hadley, before I proceed to sentencing, is there anything that you would like to say on behalf of your client and/or is there anyhting your client would like to say on his behalf? Counsel just try to defend why his client did not show up for his first sentencing hearing the week before. Defense counsel should be discipline for his poor representation to his client.

the government offer of three level reduction for acceptence of responsibilty. Had counsel did his job Rosendary, should been only sentence to 100-125 months at level 24, with his three level reduces his sentence to level 21 77-96 months. Although defendant is a career offender his Offense Statutory Maximum is (E) 10 years or more, but less than 15 years. here defendent had only a dectecable amount his base offense level is only 12, even if the court allowed his base offense level at 33, is would be miscarriage of justice and this court must look at interest or justice in in defendant case...

WHEREFORS, defendant Rosendary, is at least entitle to evidentairy hearing based on his ineffectiveness assistant of counsel claim, for not protecting his client right and violating his due process.

Respectfully submitted

Supervised release of not less than four years with respect to the statutory; and guidelines of four to five years. A fine of $2 million applies under the statutory provision; and a fine of $15,000 to $2,000,000 applies under the guidelines.

Restitution is inapplicable under both. And a special assessment of $100 applies with respect to both. All right, Mr. Hadley, prior to --

MR. PICCININI: Your Honor, if I could clarify one thing. When you mentioned the guideline provision, I think you indicated the guideline level was 33.

THE COURT: Did I say 33 -- I'm looking at it, it's 31. Thank you, you sir. Mr. Hadley, before I proceed to sentencing, is there anything that you would like to say on behalf of your client and/or is there anything your client would like to say on his own behalf?

MR. HADLEY: Both of those we'd like to.

THE COURT: Come on up first.

MR. HADLEY: I think that, although I've not addressed this in writing, is what occurred last week. As the court may be aware, my client was found at home that same day.

THE COURT: I'm really not aware of all the circumstances surrounding his capture.

MR. HADLEY: He was found later that same day at home, this was not an attempt at flight. This was not an absconder -- my client is now and was at the time felt like any
